

BOOK CLUB MEETING

THE LAST MRS. PARRISH

Daphne Parrish has it all. Wealth, prestige, and a devoted husband. All the things that Amber Patterson wants and doesn't have. When Amber puts her plan into action, sparks fly and secrets are revealed.

A PANTHERA BOOK CLUBS READING GUIDE
WWW.PANTHERABOOKCLUBS.COM

THE LAST MRS. PARRISH

1. How did your opinion of Daphne change from the first chapter of the book through to the last?
2. Did you have sympathy for Amber at any point in the story? Were you ever on her side?
3. What do you think of the expression "money can't buy happiness"? Other than material possessions, what can it buy?
4. Have you ever had the experience of realizing that a friend wasn't who you thought they were? How did you handle that?
5. If you suddenly found yourself living a life of wealth and privilege, what are some of the first activities you would get involved with?
6. What did you think of Daphne's relationship with Julie? Was it healthy? What about her relationships with her mother and daughters?
7. How do you think the authors built suspense? Were you surprised by the big twist?
8. Are there any ways that Daphne was responsible for her own situation? Would you have done anything differently?
9. Was the ending of the book fair? Did you find it satisfying?